

September 2, 2008

Dear Ilene:

I just want to take this opportunity to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the invaluable assistance you provided me during this very difficult period. When I retained you, I thought I was just getting a listing agent. Little did I know I was getting an economist, lawyer, decorator, therapist (smile!) and master negotiator.

Your advice was always dead on and practical.

It is so rare in this crazy market to find realtor who are actually driven by their client's best interests as opposed to the desire to close a sale "at any cost." Even more rare, are realtors who operate with high ethical standards and integrity.

So, if you didn't know before, I hope you know now, how much I appreciate you.

Give my regards to the rest of the team.

Jennifer Zawid, Esq.